Argyle Weekend: Nov. 9-11, 2018

Saturday Classes

Each class meets for two periods during the morning. It is expected (but not required) that dancers attend the same class level all morning. Keeping with the same class helps the teachers plan the best possible program.

The Saturday afternoon Ball Review class is usually about an hour to an hour and a half.

Register for ONE of these classes:

Scottish Dances in the Ballroom: Appropriate for dancers who have been Scottish Country Dancing for at least six months, who are familiar with basic footwork, figures, and geography, and who are interested in learning new dances. This low-pressure and relaxed class will help dancers improve their abilities to dance from a briefing, focus on dance etiquette, and practice recovery skills.

Challenge Dancing and Technique: Suitable for dancers with more than 1½ years of Scottish Country Dance experience who are familiar with standard steps/formations, are able to dance from a talk-through, and are interested in improving technique. Dances may require a combination of high-energy movement and intense mental focus.

Sunday Specialty Classes

Ceilidh Dancing for Everyone: Sunday's ceilidh dance class by Jim Stott is all low-impact ceilidh dancing. No experience or partner is necessary; bring your friends!

Teachers' Class: "Teaching: Passing on the Knowledge, a Class for RSCDS Teachers." Jim will share insights from his own experience. Bring your shoes; there will be dancing. This class will be geared to RSCDS teachers or teacher candidates, and will be taught at a level appropriate for teachers. Those interested in becoming RSCDS teachers in the future may also wish to participate as spectators (the same rate applies).

Lunches

The lunch buffet includes sandwiches, chips, cookies, fruit, and soft drinks.

Scholarships are available through the Between the Rivers Fund. You may be awarded as much as 50% of the package price. For more information, visit <https://www.rscds-greaterdc.org/betweentheivers.html#argyle>. Complete applications are due no later than October 15.
